

Veteran Resources

Valuable Resources

- <https://www.ebenefits.va.gov>
eBenefits is a web portal managed jointly by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs and the United States Department of Defense to provide Service members, Veterans and eligible dependents the ability to manage their VA and DoD benefits, claims, and military documents online.
- <http://www.vets4warriors.com/>
Provides 24 hour confidential peer support for veterans, also providing referrals for legal, housing, medical, psychological and other needs.
- <http://www.va.gov/>
Department of Veterans Affairs access to benefits, services, health, well-being, burials and memorials.
- <http://www.archives.gov/veterans/>
Allows veterans to obtain a copy of their DD214, military records, medical records, lost medals and awards.
- <http://vaforvets.va.gov>
Translates your military skills, experience and training to learn about VA career options that best fits your qualifications.
- <http://www.dol.gov/vets/>
Prepares veterans for meaningful careers, provides employment resources and expertise, and protects their employment rights.
- <http://www4.irissoft.com/IFTWSQL4prod/iowa/public.aspx>
2-1-1 provides free confidential access to health and human services. 2-1-1 offers a searchable website as an alternative to calling and speaking with a trained specialist in your area.

Military-To-Civilian Career Websites

- <http://www.careerinfonet.org/moc>
Helps translate military skills and experience to civilian occupations. Search by MOS, Keyword or Military branch.
- <http://www.military.com/veteran-jobs/skills-translator>
Translates military skills, training and experience to find career opportunities that best align with your capabilities.
- <http://www.onetonline.org/>
Every occupation requires a different mix of knowledge, skills, abilities, and is performed using a variety of activities and tasks.
- <http://www.onetonline.org/crosswalk/>
Assists veterans match their military educational and job training with current civilian workplace needs. Veterans can match their MOS to apprenticeship programs.
- <http://www.dllr.state.md.us/mil2fedjobs/>
Helps translate military occupations to federal jobs. Also assists veterans identify federal job characteristics, such as duties, pay grade, and qualifications of existing vacancies. Also allows visitors to search USAJOBS.gov for job openings.
- <http://www.mynextmove.org/vets/>
An interactive tool for veteran job seekers, that includes over 900 different careers. Assist veterans in identifying their tasks, skills, salary information, and job listings. Browse by industry or MOS. Veterans can also access the O*NET interest profiler which is a personalized tool to assist them in finding out their interests and matching occupations.
- <http://mycareeratva.va.gov/>
Helps translate military experience into a Federal resume.

Job Search Websites for Veterans

<http://workiniowa-veterans.jobs>
<http://das.hre.iowa.gov>
<https://www.usajobs.gov>
<http://www.taonline.com>
<http://www.vetjobs.com>
<http://www.vacareers.va.gov>
<http://vetcentral.us.jobs>
www.dol.gov/vets
www.military.com
www.fedshirevets.gov
www.100000jobsmission.com/
www.vba.va.gov
www.military.com/veteran-jobs
www.gijobs.com

www.stripes.com
www.hireheroesusa.org
www.militaryhire.com
www.militaryvetjobs.com <http://operationhireourheroes.org>
www.militaryonesource.mil
<http://www.whitehouse.gov/joiningforces>
<http://www.vetbiz.com>
<http://troopstoteachers.net/States/Iowa.aspx>
<http://www.midwestmilitaryoutreach.org>
www.hireveterans.com
www.uschamber.com/hiringourheroes
<http://troopssupport.com/>

<http://www.militaryfamily.org/>
<http://cv4a.org>
<https://va.iowa.gov>
<http://hirepatriots.com/>
www.militaryconnection.com
www.mynextmove.org/vets/
www.careeronestop.org
<http://iowafarmerveteran.org>
<http://www.pva.org>
<http://www.groundoperations.net>
<http://www.start2farm.gov>
<http://www.sba.gov>
<http://nchv.org/>

For additional information, contact:

IowaWORKS
Veterans Helping Veterans

70-3615 (05-15)