

Get Ready for Unemployment Appeals

Do you understand the Unemployment Insurance Appeals processes?

Emily Chafa will describe procedures for UI Appeals Bureau ALJ hearings, including prehearing processes, the hearing notice, expectations before and during the hearing with an ALJ, and appeals before the Employment Appeal Board and beyond. She will offer tips and general expectations for those who appear pro se in unemployment insurance administrative appeal hearings and discuss how the Code of Administrative Judicial Conduct applies to these proceedings. A question and answer period is also planned.

Speaker: Emily Chafa currently manages the Iowa Workforce Development UI Appeals Bureau. She previously worked as an ALJ (Administrative Law Judge) with Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) conducting hearings and issuing decisions in unemployment appeals, from April 10, 2015 until she began her current duties on July 3, 2015.
