Occupational Safety and Health (OSHA) Injury and Illness Recordkeeping Requirements

Meeting Details

Incomplete or inaccurate reporting of work-related injuries and illnesses ranks as one of the most frequently-cited OSHA violations each year. Join this class, led by a state Division of Labor professional, to sharpen your knowledge regarding OSHA recordkeeping standard 29 CFR 1904. Participants will discuss how and when to record an injury or illness, criteria for treatment and first aid, application of the standard to multiple business establishments and workplace scenarios, and the requirements for record retention and updating.
