

Iowa Workforce Development

For Immediate Release

Date: June 12, 2006

Contacts:

Kent Roeder or Ray Owensby - (563) 556-5800

Patrick Palmershiem - 1 (800) 838-4692

VETERANS' BENEFITS FAIR

Postville, Iowa - On June 22, 2006 a Veterans Benefits Fair will be held at the Big 4 Fairgrounds, Exhibit Building, 327 North Maple, Postville, IA from 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. If you are a veteran seeking information on veteran's benefits topics or wants information to obtain employment, this Benefits Fair is for you. Topics covered include, Veterans Benefits, Iowa Veterans Home, Health Screenings, Vet Center Counseling, Widow's Benefits, Educational Opportunities and VA Medical Center Eligibility. Representatives from the Social Security Administration, Des Moines VA Regional Office, and Great River Counseling Center will be available to answer questions or concerns of veterans.

Iowa Workforce Development Veterans' Career Consultants are available to provide Job Search Assistance, Resume Critiquing and Labor Market Information. Allamakee, Clayton, Fayette and Winneshiek County Commission of Veterans Affairs Representatives will answer questions to a wide range of services available through the Department of Veterans Affairs.

All information and services are free of charge. For more information call Patrick Palmersheim at 1 (800) 838-4692 or contact Iowa Workforce Development at 1 (866) 227-9874 and ask to speak to Kent or Ray. You may also call your local County Veterans Affairs Office.

###

Equal Opportunity Employer/Program

Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request for individual with disabilities

www.iowaworkforce.org www.iowaworks.org www.iowajobs.org