Iowa Workforce Development Encourages Iowans to use IowaJobs.org

Waterloo, Iowa – Whether looking for a job or seeking to hire qualified applicants, Iowa Workforce Development encourages Iowans to begin their search with IowaJobs.org.

"By using IowaJobs.org, employers and job seekers can take advantage of the many services we provide," said Elisabeth Buck, director of Iowa Workforce Development. "IowaJobs.org offers something for everyone statewide."

At any given time, over 20,000 jobs are posted. Many of Iowa's top employers have their job openings automatically added to IowaJobs.org directly from their web sites. This ensures that only the most current jobs are posted.

Employers can take advantage of the many screening options available to guarantee only qualified applicants are submitted. They can also save time by having Iowa Workforce Development staff manage their job postings. In addition, employers can find access to labor market information along with other employment data.

"After becoming frustrated with my job search, I turned to Iowa Workforce Development. They taught me how to develop my resume, search for a job on IowaJobs.org and apply online." said Bridget Safford. "Thanks to the resources at the workforce center, I was hired at the American Red Cross."

With thousands of internet views per day, IowaJobs.org can offer a unique pool of applicants that no one else can provide. To learn more about how IowaJobs.org can help you, contact the Waterloo Workforce Development Center at (319) 235-2123.
