Southwest Iowa ECI: “Unemployment Appeal Hearings: Present Your Case to Win”

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA – Employers: are you concerned about losing your unemployment appeal hearings? Is your unemployment insurance tax rate increasing due to multiple unemployment claims going against your favor? The Southwest Iowa Employers’ Council (ECI) will be hosting a workshop on “Unemployment Appeal Hearings: Present Your Case to Win”. Featured speaker will be Dan Anderson who has been an Administrative Law Judge with Iowa Workforce Development since 1984.

This training session will be held at two locations:

- Council Bluffs: Wednesday June 8, 2011 from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm at IWCC, Looft Hall #006.
- Shenandoah: Thursday June 9 from 9:00 a.m. to noon at The Safety Center, 400 West Sheridan Street.

There is no fee to attend. All businesses, human resource personnel, attorneys, paralegals, financial officers, supervisors and payroll staff are invited to attend. Due to the complexity of this topic, employers are encouraged to send multiple staff. Pre-registration is requested by Friday June 3 for planning purposes to Carol Morgan, (712) 242-2131 or carol.morgan@iwd.iowa.gov.

Program topics include:

- Definitions of misconduct, discharges and quits; Iowa Codes and Iowa Employment Security Laws
- Drug testing as it relates to unemployment benefits
- Separation issues such as discharges for attendance, insubordination, fighting on the job, off duty conduct, gross misconduct, carelessness & negligence; quitting for good cause attributable to the employer, quits to avoid violence and domestic abuse, quits to accept other employment, quitting without good cause; temporary employees of employment firms, refusals of work or recall; suitable offers of work; issues involving part time employees
- Health related separation issues, work related & non work related ; choice of medical doctor; quit as a part of a work compensation settlement
- Documentation of disciplinary actions; timeliness of the appeal procedure
- Miscellaneous tough Unemployment Appeal Hearing issues
- This is a “hold-harmless” informational session; any and all questions are welcome.

Judge Anderson has been an Administrative Law Judge with IWD since 1984, becoming Chief Administrative Law Judge in 1996 and is currently an Administrative Law Judge. After military service he attended the University of Iowa, College of Law, graduating in 1975. He has participated in training seminars sponsored by the US Dept of Labor, the National Judicial College, the Iowa Association of Administrative Law Judges and the Iowa State Bar Association. He is a member of both the Iowa and National Association of Administrative Law Judges.

This program has been approved for 3.0 (General) recertification credit hours towards PHR, SPHR and GPHR recertification through the Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI). A certificate of attendance will be provided at the training session.

The Southwest IA Employers’ Council is a local employer group supported by Iowa Workforce Development Region 13 including Harrison, Shelby, Pottawattamie, Mills, Cass, Fremont and Page counties, and is part of the statewide Employers’ Council of Iowa system. All businesses, including Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri employers are welcome to attend ECI events. This employer’s group addresses workforce issues, and provides both educational and networking opportunities for employers and human resource professionals.
